Dear Mr. Casti:

Thank you for your October 13, 1999 facsimile. It appears that you have done what we requested, which is to remove the German Big Book, As Bill Sees It and the AA publications catalog. We understand that you are not able to remove the text of the Twelve and Twelve and we will pursue that elsewhere.

I received your voicemail this morning. I was not aware that you had called before but I have no objection to talking to you on the telephone. I do not believe that a telephone conversation is necessary in view of your cooperation, but if you wish to call me, please do.

If we find any other materials we would like to see removed from your web site, we will let you know what the URL is.

On behalf of AAWS, we thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in resolving this matter.

Best regards.

Very truly yours,

Cindy
